

AREA 1: OUTSIDE THE DUNGEON COMPLEX

The Bhothrim estate resides about a quarter of a mile outside the small village of Heartmore. Once thought to have the potential of blossoming into a bustling city, the wealth of Heartmore died with the Bhothrim family. Now, only a handful of residents remain, mostly keeping to themselves.

You will notice that the map for this scenario starts with the #2. That's because Area 1 takes place outside the dungeon.

When the Hero arrives at the decrepit estate, read the text box below:

Though the Bhothrim estate was burned down over twenty years ago, scorched ground and bits of charred furniture still remain. The roof collapsed long ago, but a few walls are still standing, the skeletal remnants of a once towering mansion. Several sets of footprints are pressed into the ash and dirt, their makers not bothering to cover their tracks. They all lead to the same area, what was once a room in the western part of the estate, then seem to disappear into thin air.

The door into the underground complex is concealed by magic. Luckily, Emperor Geo told the Hero how to dispel it before they arrived. Revealing and opening the door will require completing one of the Special Scenarios below.

XXX – To reveal and open the door, the Hero and their Deity must go pearl diving.

To go pearl diving, the woman will stand with her legs slightly spread while the man sits on the floor with his legs stretched out between the woman's. She will guide his head as he engages in cunnilingus. This should be carried out until she is satisfied.

Multiple Heroes Modification: This sex act can be performed with any Hero in the party.

DRINK – Being a water mage, Azad thought it would be funny to require anyone wanting to enter the underground complex to drink a watered-down drink. Have your Hero take a shot glass and fill it half full with water. Then, top it off with a half shot of liquor or other adult beverage.

Multiple Heroes Modification: Every Hero in the party must do this.

BASE – Read the text box below:

Emperor Geo has instructed you to make a raindrop shape out of rocks on top of where the footprints disappear, then repeat this incantation: Water from above, fall on those below. Reveal the entrance with your glow.
